

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
October 1, 2017

MEDIA CONTACT:
Miguel Mancebo
Miguel@SCIPDreams.org
(646)-236-4289

BallyOwen Blue Skies and Impacting Lives at SCIP's 3rd Annual Golf Classic

(New York, October 1, 2017) – On September 18th, 2017, the Selective Corporate Internship Program (SCIP) family came together at the Ballyowen Golf Course at Crystal Springs Resort in Hamburg, NJ. The proceeds of the third annual golf classic support SCIP's Fellows Program, which is a continuum of the signature Executive Summer Leadership Program. The funding has allowed SCIP fellows to continue their golf training via the newly formed SCIP Golf Club. Additional contributions are welcomed via the GoFundMe page and are tax deductible.

Among those in attendance supporting SCIP's mission to "Enlighten, Employ and Empower" the next generation of global leaders include: Luis Antonio Ramos of the STARZ hit show POWER, SouthWest Airlines, Bank of America, New York Life, Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield, AIG, Colonial Coatings, Martin Insurance, Aquino and Reed, CPA, Tri-State Marketing, Vaco, Penmar, Turtle Cove Golf Center, Point Human Capital Management, and Mitchel Titus.

Keysahen Reuben with his starter bag and Luis Antonio Ramos.

Two starter bags were given to two SCIP Young Leaders from the Class of 2017, Gayene Gevorkyan and Keysahen Reuben, who won the longest drive competition among their fellow Executive Summer Leadership Program interns. As the first gift from the SCIP Foundation, which was sponsored by Tri-State Marketing, SCIP looks forward to creating impactful ways to connect SCIP Young Leaders with SCIP sponsors, partners, and supporters.

SCIP's Golf Classic Chair, Dan Guadalupe, Esq., Equity Member, Norris, McLaughlin & Marcus, P.A. gave remarks to the group thanking them for their unwavering support of SCIP and the commitment of helping talented young people in the arena of upward social mobility, while strengthening diversity among Corporate America.

Join the conversation and stay up-to-date by following SCIP on social media (@SCIPLeaders) or visit www.SCIPLeaders.org. Save the date for SCIP's 4th annual golf classic to take place on September 17, 2018.

WE THANK OUR THIRD ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC SPONSORS:

Norris, McLaughlin & Marcus, P.A., Tri-State Marketing, Southwest Airlines, Entertainment Cruises, United Federation of Teachers, Martin Insurance, Aquino & Reed, CPA, Horizon Blue Cross & Blue Shield, Liemco, Colonial Coatings, Canarias Trading and Scott and Lisa Sonkin.

ABOUT THE SELECTIVE CORPORATE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The Selective Corporate Internship Program is a national nonprofit organization in partnership with Fortune 500 Companies and various supporters, upholding the mission to "Enlighten, Employ and Empower" diverse underprivileged students (eighth grade to MBA) for successful careers through corporate mentorship, leadership development and internship opportunities. As a result, SCIP Young Leaders hold a 92 percent success rate of attending their first choice college and impacts beyond the students to include their families and the communities they serve. Recognized as a National "Bright Spot" in Hispanic Education by the White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanics, SCIP represents the diversity and promise of the American Dream.

###